'March for Millage' Parade To Be Held in Romulus June 7

ROMULUS—There's going to be a parade on Saturday, June 7 and everyone is invited to join.

The Romulus High School Band, under the direction of Gideon Pettway, will be marching in all attendance areas of the Romulus Community Schools beginning at 9 am at the Romulus High School on this day.

The parade will be to demonstrate to the community the abilities of the band as well as to draw attention to the importance of the music program, which has been eliminated in the elementary schools due to the restricted programs resulting from a lack of operating funds.

Provided the success of the millage election on June 9, the programs will be restored, (staff is available) in the fall.

VARIOUS PTA units have had an active part in arranging the March For Millage.

Working in cooperation with the Music Department and the Band Boosters, Mt. Pleasant PTA has been busy finding cars and drivers to transport the musicians from one area to the next. President-elect, Mrs. Liz Clark has been in charge of organizing the march. Past president, Mrs. Judy Gruber has been mapping parade routes and arranging for Township permits and police escorts.

Hayti PTA, Mrs. Eva McDonald, president, has volunteered to furnish the food for lunch also to prepare and deliver it to the High School where teachers will have arranged to serve the meal.

ALL PTA units have donated money or have cooperated in spreading information concerning the millage need. Teacher groups have supported their efforts and have cooperated on many projects.

School Millage Approval Urged

Next Monday, June 9, is an important day in the operation of Romulus Community Schools. Voters on this day will take to the polls to decide in great measure the future of their school system.

"The Romulus School District's Board of Education is 'urgently' seeking approval by the electorate of a Millage Proposition calling for the additional assessment of four mills for one year.

The new millage is needed to meet increase cost of school operation next year (1969-70 school year).

THE SCHOOL SYSTEMS operating budget for the new school year will be seven to 10 percent higher than the current budget.

Increased student enrollment plus teacher and other vital needs makes the additional millage a "necessity."

The new additional will also restore cutbacks ordered in various Educational programs and services earlier this year.

The Millage Proposition has created considerable community-wide interest and support.

Recent surveys disclosed that numerous civic and social organizations, PTA units and community leaders in the Township have endorsed the Board of Education's millage plea.

Romulus School District Mill Plea Up To Voters

Additional Levy Is For One Year Board Seeks Four Mills To Meet Increased Costs

BY HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

ROMULUS—Voters in Romulus Community School District will decide on a Millage Proposition seeking additional funds for school operations for the 1969-70 school year and fill two School Board Posts in next Monday's (June 9) annual school election.

The Board of Education is asking approval of four additional mills for one year to meet increased costs caused by increased student enrollment and teacher needs in the coming school year.

The additional millage request will add $4 for each $1,000 of assessed property valuation, state equalized, Robert L. McConeghy, school superintendent, reported.

He added that passage of the new levy will also bring about restoration of program and service cuts made this year.

The millage plea has received the support and endorsement of numerous civic and social organizations.

Township PTA units have united in their efforts to get voter approval of the Millage Proposition.

A "Parade for Millage" is scheduled for June 7 in the township and it is being sponsored by the PTA Area Council and others.

The school board has determined that the four mills are an absolute necessity to meet the needs of the district as well as restoring the program cuts previously ordered because of lack of adequate operating funds.

Candidates running for the school posts are incumbents Carl W. Morris of 13599 Huron River Drive; and Jason P. Lovette of 35746 Bibbins Street. They are seeking re-election to four year terms and are unopposed.

This year's school election has brought about community-wide interest. Some 7,400 registered voters are eligible to cast ballots.

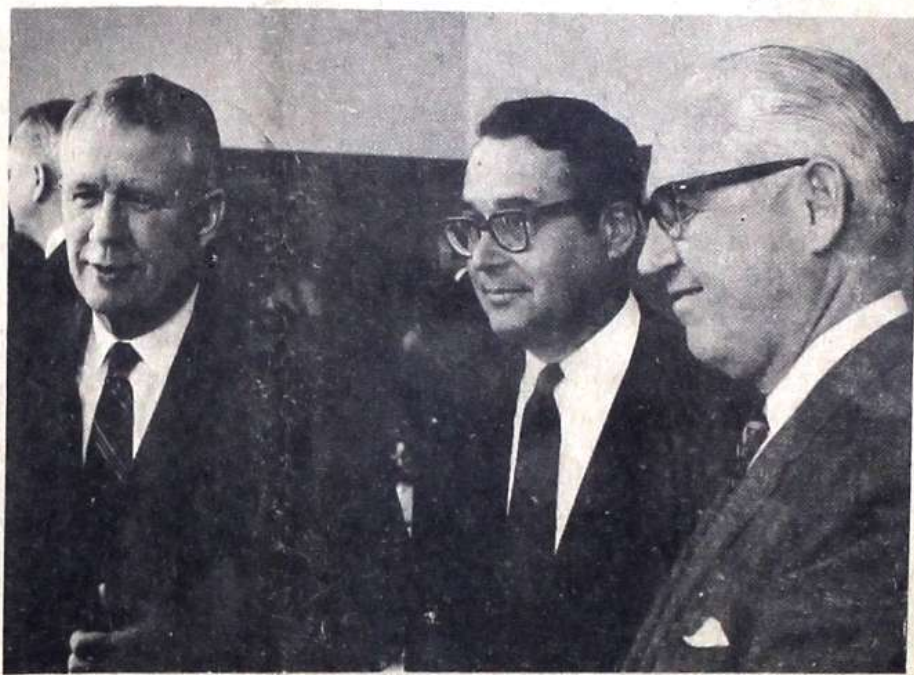

Staff additions must also be made in certain special instruction areas, such as general music and speech, McConeghy reported.

The district will have 16 new classrooms available for occupancy when school opens in the fall.

Additional classrooms means additional custodial services and supplies, plus the necessary utilities required for their operations in addition to teachers, school officials stated.

IT IS estimated by school administration that the total operating budget will increase from seven to 10 percent next year due to the spiraling cost of education.

Anti-Pollution Is Class Room Topic

BELLEVILLE—Mayor Royce E. Smith and State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) of Romulus responded to the inquiries of Mrs. Janet Verde's history class at Belleville Junior High School by making a personal appearance, Monday, (June 2) to discuss the problems of the pollution of Belleville Lake.

A group of the students of the Eight grade formed S.T.O.P. (Students to Oppose Pollution) as part of a history project.

Their first move was to become informed as to the causes and the efforts being made to cure the pollution. They have written to concerned individuals and civic groups for this information and to offer their assistance in informing the public.

Representative Mahalak suggested that they carry their letter writing campaign to Gov. George Milliken, requesting that he look into the matter and urge the Conference Committee to act on Senate Bill No. 107. S.T.O.P. would like you to do the same.

Mayor Smith informed them that since the majority of the waste is dumped into the river before it reaches Belleville, little other than civic pressure can be done to prevent the pollution.

The Day of Beginning

Graduation is one of the most important milestones along the highway of life. It is a significant accomplishment. Yet, while it marks the achievement of a successful program of training and education, it is not an ending, but in a real sense it is a beginning.

The future belongs rightfully to those who have prepared for it, who will now move upward, striding confidently toward a new plateau—to higher education, and along the routes designated commerce, industry, public service, and medicine, to name a few.

Graduation has opened the book of life to a fresh new page to the beginning of a new chapter, and each member of the Class of 1969 through individual effort shall determine what will be recorded thereon.

Salutations and best wishes on this momentous occasion!

Charter Commission Hear From Auditors

ROMULUS—Township Auditors, Smythe and Ziel, revisited the Romulus Charter Commission last Wednesday, May 28, and gave the Commission figures regarding other cities and their tax rates for comparison to the existing Romulus budget and tax rate.

From such statistical data the commission hopes to come up with the millage rate for the city charter.

Many questions arose which only a state tax man could answer and/or for which the auditors would have to get more facts to answer them.

Smythe will return with the final figures on the Water Department in a couple of weeks.

Because of the long questioning of the auditors, the commission was unable to get further writing done on the charter that evening. At the next meeting work will continue on the writing of the charter.

Residents are welcome to sit in on the charter commission meetings which

Westwood, Cherry Hill Need Your 'Yes' Vote

Frankly, no one can solve the financial woes of Western Wayne County's many poor school districts except the legislature and the Governor.

Only these state officials can revamp the system of financing education, a system which is grossly unfair to industry-poor communities and which places the greatest burden on those who can least afford it — the poor and those on fixed incomes.

But the legislature and the Governor have shown that they have no intention of raising taxes or making any enemies before the next election in 1970. This tactic may even backfire eventually for its common knowledge that many, many Michigan school districts are now on the brink of financial disaster.

Be that as it may, it is quite clear to school administrators around here that no help is forthcoming for at least a year, probably two. Therefore, school districts like Cherry Hill and Westwood Community Schools are just going to have to make do themselves.

At the polls Monday, Cherry Hill residents in Inkster, Westland and Dearborn Heights will vote on a $540,000 bond issue and a six-mill proposal.

If approved, the bonds would be sold to pay for the cost of the addition of seven new classrooms at Cherry Hill High School. The six mills for two years would be slated for operating costs.

As we see it, passage of these proposals is the only reasonable thing for Cherry Hill residents to do. Students will be literally busting out the walls at Cherry Hill High School within the next few years. Money is also needed for repairs and renovations. And finally, Cherry Hill teachers rank 48th out of the 49 Greater Detroit school districts in teacher salaries.

These proposals were worked up by a citizens' committee that studied requests from all elements of the school district — teachers, parents, principals, administrators, and non-instructional employees — to come up with a basic package that would meet the district's immediate needs without asking for an excessive amount.

We therefore give our full support to Cherry Hill's millage and bond proposals.

Another Western Wayne County school that has just barely been hanging in financially is the Westwood Community School District.

In April, Westwood voters turned down a proposal for a one-year ten-mill increase. After this defeat, the Westwood Board of Education adopted an austerity budget which called for half-day sessions in all elementary schools; closing of all or part of several elementary schools and the junior high; proportionate reduction of all staff, including administrators, secretaries, custodians, and teachers; and elimination of almost everything that isn't reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic.

When parents began to realize what the next school year was going to be like, two things in particular struck home: the half-days for elementary school children and the elimination of junior high and high school athletics. After it became apparent to School Board trustees that some people, at least, would vote differently if they got the chance, the Board decided to put the issue on the ballot again.

While we feel Westwood's chances for success are better the second time around, it will take a lot to overcome the three-to-one margin that defeated the millage. It is refreshing to see that millage supporters are running more of a grassroots campaign this time. Perhaps they could take a lesson from other school districts and learn that a successful millage campaign is a long time in the preparation and that district citizens must be involved in the decision-making.

The persons who really defeated that millage in March are not likely to be dissuaded. Large numbers of senior citizens got out then to vote no and we would be surprised if they didn't turn out again to oppose the millage.

Who can blame a retiree on a fixed income for not wishing to increase his taxes? But we must add that it is not only the children who suffer when a proposal like this fails; it is the entire community. Though we sympathize with these seniors, we hope that they, too, will see how vitally important it is for this proposal to pass.

In the final analysis, of course, the only answer is fiscal reform. These millages are only stopgap measures and everyone seems to know it — except the legislature. If you feel your school taxes are too high and, because of a poor tax base, you don't get enough out of your school dollar, write and tell your state legislators. It is only through citizen pressure that educational fiscal reform will come to Michigan.

In the meantime, don't take your taxpayer's blues out on the children. Vote yes in Cherry Hill and Westwood.

Cast Your Vote For the Total Man

As the voters in the Livonia School District go to the polls next Monday for the annual school election, we give one word of advice—vote for total candidates, not the one-issue men.

The running of the Livonia School District, or for that matter any school district, demands well-rounded Board members with vision. They must be people who can listen to presentations on curriculum and finance, and then after carefully weighing the facts make final decisions for the good of the total district.

The Livonia school children do not need board members who come into office with one-sided, pre-determined ideas. The Livonia school children need board members who can rationally, and not emotionally, view all sides of every issue, be it sex education, dress codes or the junior high curriculum.

A district rises and falls on the kind of board members the people elect. Livonia has far too much at stake to make the mistake of electing one-issue candidates to the school board. One-issue men cannot by their very definition cope with all the problems that face the district.

We make no endorsements, but we urge the Westland residents of the Livonia district to seek out the total candidates next Monday.

Prayer Got Him Zilch

By Joyce Hagelthorn

The other day I was busy whipping up a box cake (actually, what I was doing was reading the instructions to make sure I'd be able to whip it up) when the telephone rang.

My ears shivered right up against my head when I heard the stern voice on the other end of the wire.

"Mrs. H.," he said, "we are going to have to expel your son for 36 hours."

"My gosh," I shouted, "what on earth did the kid do? Run down the principal?"

"Oh no," he said.

"Sprinkle ground glass in the principal's parking lot?"

"No, no," he hastily assured me, "nothing as simple as that. We feel it's a much more serious misdemeanor. We caught him praying in school."

"Oh heavens," I shouted. He should be expelled. After all, getting caught doing a thing like that has got to be punished."

"We thought you would agree with us," the voice on the phone said. "And thank you for your cooperation."

As soon as the kid got home I naturally made like a wrathful mother, and I hit him around a good bit, and then sent him to his room for the 36 hours, with nothing but bread and water.

"What a dumb thing to do," I shouted at his retreating back. "What a stupid, assinine thing to do . . . getting caught praying in school."

"But gee, mom, he whispered. "I thought I needed a bit of help with that final."

"You should get outside help?" I shouted. "If you need help, go to your teacher."

A couple of days after the kid got reinstated he came home one afternoon and started scrounging around in the bookshelves.

"Mom," he shouted from a pile of books, "where's that Life magazine you saved with the pictures and stuff on the birth of a child?"

"In the drawer," I yelled back. "But what do you want that for?"

"I thought I'd like to have it handy," his voice was a little bit muffled from his head in the drawer. "We're studying how the baby got in the mother's body in the first place, and I thought it would be good to have these pictures when we get to that part of our sex education."

"Oh, you're right," I said beaming, "and maybe you'd like to take this sex tabloid that came in a plain wrapper today. It's probably got some angles about sex your teacher doesn't know."

"Gee, mom, thanks, he said happily taking the tabloid from my hand and racing out the door.

"Oh, that's all right, honey," I shouted after him. "Just you be careful and learn your sex lessons well . . . and whatever you do, don't get caught doing a dumb thing like praying in your classroom . . . okay?"

"Okay," he yelled above his revved-up motor, "I'll be real careful where I pray . . . I won't get caught again . . . honest."

Too Rich and Too Smart

By Jim Fitzgerald

There is only one thing more disgusting than a brother-in-law who sires smarter kids than you do. That is a brother-in-law who makes truckloads more money than you do.

I have both kinds and, unfortunately, they live nearby and it is necessary to exchange regular visits (It is typical of my luck that my only brother-in-law who is fatter than I am lives so far away I can stand next to him only once a year).

Anyway, it was Mother's Day and the only way I could see my mother was to drive to brother-in-law Jack's new home in Bloomfield Hills. That's Detroit's lushest suburb, the one where George Romney used to go on Sunday to ask God what he should do on Monday.

It was little sister Mary Lou who married Uncle Jack. She's the one whose hair turned grey when she was 10 and she doesn't care. When she was 25 she married and her life turned gold. Her relatives turned green.

I can't describe their mansion fully. I got lost in the foyer and fell behind the guided tour. But there's a redwood sundeck in back, beside a swimming pool big enough for a Holiday Inn. There's a living room untouched by human hand because there are so many other rooms to really live in. Between the master bedroom and bath there is even a dressing room, which certainly beats hiding in the closet.

At one point I thought I'd discovered the family room but it turned out to be the dog's room. It was in the real family room, knee-deep in carpet, that Jack asked if I'd have a drink. I said yes and expected him to head for the kitchen. Instead, he snapped his fingers and a complete bar twisted out of the wall. That's class. That's also where I fell out of the tour for good. I was sick of hearing my daughter say she never wanted to go home.

It was then that Uncle Bill arrived. He is married to Terrible Jean, the big sister who used to beat me up for lunch every day. They have five kids. The oldest, Steve, is typical. He's a scholarship student at tough U of D High where he gets all A's. Steve makes millions caddyng and saves every lousy cent for his education.

Another son, Dan, is so nice he volunteered to miss the big party and stay home with a sick sister. This probably means he'll have a medical degree before he is 15.

And then there's Sheila, a pre-teen who takes after her mother only she's better looking. Super Sheila can leap wide swimming pools in a single bound without getting wet. Hardly.

I keep wondering why their smartie kids don't fight like my kids fight. Especially the little twins, Mary and Maureen. "Those two must have some great battles, don't they?" I asked Terrible Jean.

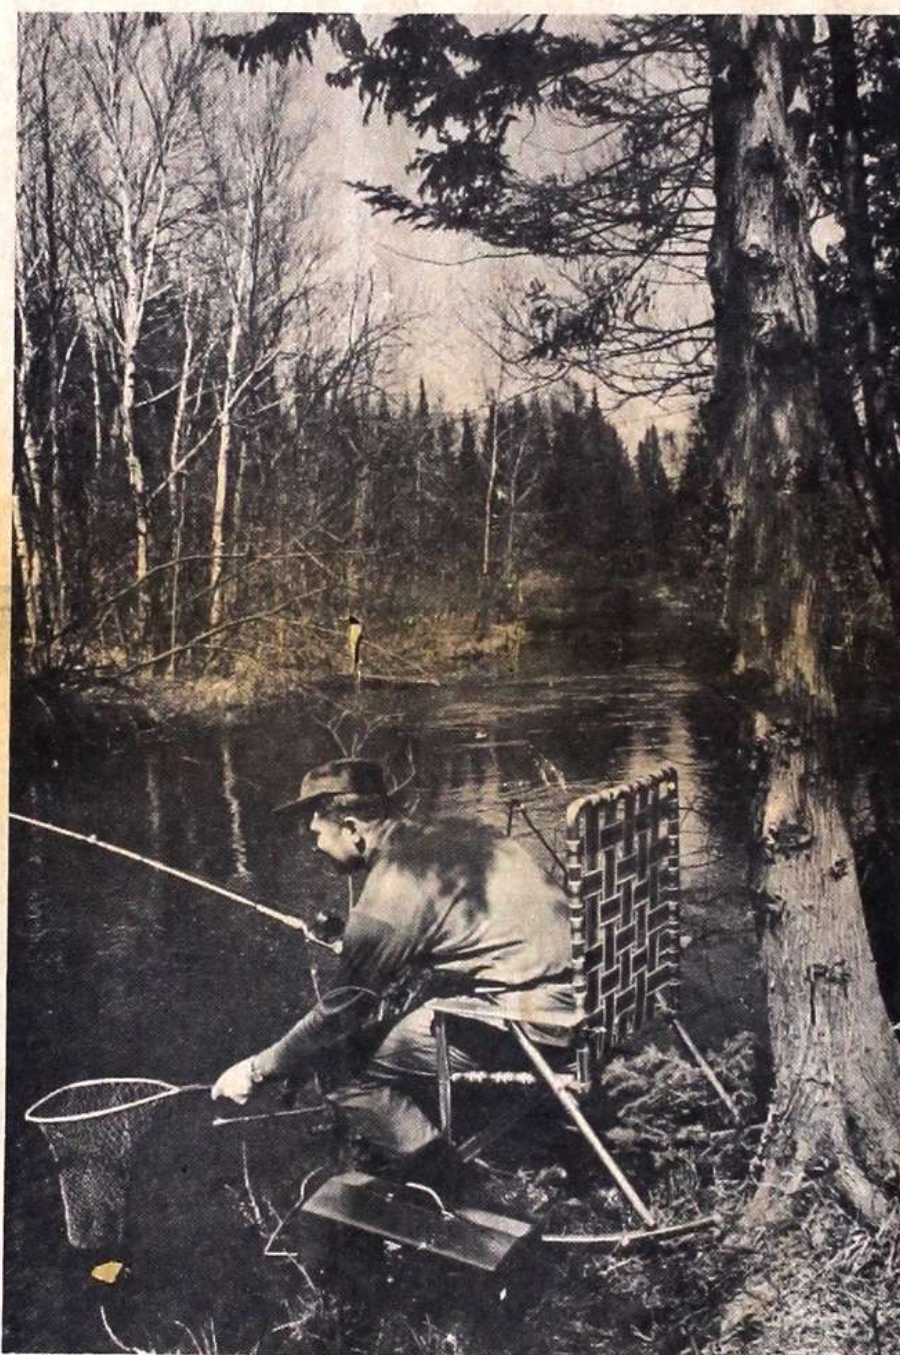

"No," she said. "In fact, with Mary sick today, Maureen wouldn't leave her behind without first writing her a get-well note."

Boy. My only hope is my youngest sister, Linda, who is still single. If she doesn't hurry and marry a poverty-stricken bum, and have some rotten kids, I'm never going to another family party.

Onward and Upward.

Color Shouldn't Count

By Dick McKnight

Well, the polls were wrong again," Paul Harvey chortled, "They didn't listen to the silent majority of common people who weren't talking."

Harvey took to the airwaves this day, Wednesday, May 28, to comment on the news of the victory of Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles over his challenger Thomas Bradley, who happens to be black. The implication of the comment was that the silent majority also happened to be a white majority.

There's no special reason why all of us should take an Excedrin because of the Los Angeles election results, but we should keep our ears open about such things since we, too, may face this kind of thing before the year is out.

Detroit is likely to be given a chance to elect its first Negro mayor, and the field of candidates will probably offer most all shades of political belief and skin color.

While none of us in the suburban areas will actually have a vote in the Detroit election, we will probably have a lot to say about it, and that is what is important. What will we say about it?

Carl Stokes had to pick up something less than 10 percent of the white votes in Cleveland to be elected mayor there two years ago. He barely made it, with about 95 percent of all blacks casting their votes for him.

In Detroit, the black candidate for mayor will have a rougher row to hoe if he wants to sit in the City side of the City-County Building next year. While each man's qualifications, white or black, will mean something to the voters, it is likely that the issue of race will be by far the biggest question mark in speculation about the outcome of the election.

When Councilman Nicholas Hood, one of two blacks on the Common Council of Detroit, won election, he did so because he was able to pick up a substantial number of white votes. This writer was an election night reporter in a white precinct on the edge of the ghetto, and saw the totals coming off the voting machines. Hood far outdistanced other Negro candidates.

What made Councilman Hood desirable to the white population was his reputation as a moderate. He was a minister, and he didn't talk like white people normally expect a black man to talk—as if he just came off the plantation. In short, Hood was the whitest of all the black candidates.

Today, the situation is different for men like Hood, and men unlike him, but more militant in their approach to civil rights. This is why William T. Patrick, the former Councilman who resigned to take a high-paying job with the Telephone Company, and Hood, are not likely to represent Detroit blacks in the mayoral race.

A black candidate today has to walk the finest of lines to survive politically. He must appear militant and outspoken enough to attract the energies of those aggressive blacks who will provide the backbone and the foot power for the campaign, must seem moderate to the middle class black power structure that provides money and a measure of support, and must seem not too "uppity" to the white population in order to pull a few votes from them.

The reason there hasn't been a single black candidate named at this point is because there are very few, if any, blacks in Detroit who can fit the description.

But today the blacks can almost taste the leadership of the City. They are that close to becoming the majority.

As a white man, I hate to think color will mean anything to me when I consider the candidates in the Detroit mayoral election. But it might. And if anything, and I'll admit it publicly, I'll be tending toward the black candidate, just because I think it's about time.

So, maybe color does mean something in the race. Maybe a black man has to win before we learn not to be afraid any more.

It's Vacation Time Again

For the young, there is no freedom to compare with that which comes with the closing of school.

The exuberance of the young as they savor release from the necessary disciplines of the classroom is a wholesome thing to see. This is pure escape, the kind that adults dream about but never achieve. Even for the children, pure untrammelled freedom loses its shine in the latter days of summer when the "nothing to do" stage sets in.

Freedom, to be enjoyed, must be earned, and even then, its richness is lost where there is no ultimate sense of direction or minus factor such as household chores that tend to preserve an appreciation of freedom.

The ending of the school year, and the watching of the children in their new-found freedom and the manner in which they use-and abuse-that freedom, should have a special meaning for the adult world today where freedom is being used and abused in ways no one could have foreseen a few short years ago.

Poetry Corner

MY COUNTRY. "OF THEE I SING".

We drove through fields of tall corn and soy beans in central Ohio and Indiana. I was proud to be a citizen of a country that produces such abundance. We saw the pictured rocks of Lake Superior and the Iron pits of Minnesota. I was glad that they are ours. The cool blue lakes of Minnesota were refreshing, they are among my possessions. The productive plains of the Dakotas though uninspiring shall not be taken from me. The Rocky Mountains, OH! the Rocky Mountains are mine forever, the deed is in my heart. And did you see the Pacific Ocean that washes our Western shores? I would not sell for any price. The up and down hills, the tumbling streams of Idaho no one can take from me. We drove the deserts of the Southwest, these are mine to keep as long as I live. The steaming geysers of Yellowstone are my geysers and my country. I shall not part with one geyser or one acre; these are mine for life.

The Public Letter Box

TO THE EDITOR:

I feel that thanks should be given to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 4434, the Polish Legion of American Veterans, Belleville Post 167, and the VFW Ladies Auxiliary for the efforts put forth in organizing the Memorial Day parade held in Belleville Sunday, May 25.

However, I found it very embarrassing (as did many residents of Belleville) when guest participants from Detroit, Wyandotte, and Dearborn marched down the main street of Belleville and could not see one American flag displayed by our merchants.

The saying has always been--support your local merchants; however, is this an example of how local merchants support the city and township residents?

Another thing that is disheartening is the lack of local support. Where were our city officials? Our township supervisor found time to participate. Where were representatives of our newly organized Lions Club? Where was the Chamber of Commerce? These are but a few of the many organizations that could have been in our parade.

ISN'T IT possible for these people to participate in some sort of way in Belleville's Memorial Day parade? After Michigan's Cooperative Extension Service started as a result of the Smith-Lever Act in 1914. By 1915, there were 15 county agents working in Michigan to serve farmers and other members of the rural society.

all, this parade is in commemoration of those loved fathers, brothers, husbands, and friends of Belleville who died for us. Can't we take one Sunday afternoon and spend it in memory of them?

Comments were made about the fact that our parade is always so small. Whose fault is it? The VFW and PLAV spent much time and money organizing this parade. I feel that they should receive more support and credit then they are given.

A thank you is given to our local bands; you can always depend on them; also, a round of applause goes out to all other participants of the parade.

Because of their time and interest, we were able to have a fine parade. Let's hope that next year more people will be interested in keeping the Memorial Day parade an annual event that gets bigger and better every year. Not one that dies by the wayside because residents did not care.

A Resident That Cares

TO THE EDITOR AND PUBLIC:

May 23, 1969 marked the end of several weeks of intense, but yet most enjoyable work for several people, including myself. I am, of course, referring to the Edgemont Drama Club's production of J. R. Tolkien's "The Hobbit".

The sweat and hard work, the long hours and lost sleep, and high emotions were all dwarfed by surprise, smiles, and many adults at or near tears as we watched 34 5th and 6th graders, and the many teenagers and adults who worked backstage, give their all to make this production a success and succeed!

This play was not put on by just a group of people, but by a group who love what they are doing and doing what they love.

***

MANY COMMENTS were made by those in the audience, and the comments made such as, "This is Not an elementary school play!" and "It is Tolkien." are a higher tribute than the appreciated applauses.

Many, many thanks go to several people, but at the head of this list is Mr. James Lightfoot, the director, and the concerned man who realizes that the theatre is nearer to life than any other art and wants to give this knowledge to you.

The applause has died, the curtains closed, the set struck, the costumes stored, and the make-up put away, but once that theatre bug has bitten you, you will find yourself not trying to shake it, but asking, "What play will we do next and when do we start?"

AFTER GLOW PARTY

FOLLOWING THE final curtain of "The Hobbit" Friday, May 23, the cast and crew members—about 50 in all—were invited to the John Freysinger home on Sunrise Lane for a party. The Edgemont school pupils were treated to a cake (decorated with a forest tree) and huge trays of fresh fruit accented with little figures of elves, dwarfs, and trolls, all in keeping with the theme of the play. After the younger set's soiree their elders enjoyed a get-together where they re-hashed the evening production. Among the 50 attending were Jim Lightfoot, who directed the play, and Jonathon Hale, the producer. Also on hand for refreshments were Mona Salisbury, who carried the load of business manager; Martha Ion, set designer; Pat O'Brannigan, costumes; Dorothy Florian, make-up; and Fay Davis, properties.

BACK FROM SOUTH

THE MIDAS—Herb, Betty, and sons, Bill and Lynn—arrived home Friday May 23 following a nine-day vacation in Florida. With the Mayport Naval Base near Jacksonville as their target, they visited their son, BT-3 Robert Mida, who took them aboard his ship, the USS Goodrich, and other parts of the compound.

Then receiving liberty, he joined his family for their trip to St. Augustine and Daytona Beach. They were able to see the lift-off of Apollo 10 and later toured Cape Kennedy. The remainder of their week was spent at Jacksonville Beach.

Enroute the foursome stopped in Oak Ridge, Tennessee to see the Atomic Energy Plant. They're all sporting mighty nice tans which speak for the fine weather they experienced during their stay.

HERE 'N THERE

WORD HAS been received from Tarpon Springs, Florida that former Belleville, Leonard Hudge, is confined at Tarpon Springs General Hospital since suffering a slight stroke last week. At this writing he is much improved and is presently undergoing therapy. MEANWHILE BACK here in Michigan his sister-in-law, Clara Bokon, remains a medical patient at Harper Hospital, in Detroit. She is still in traction for a sprained spine and expects to be confined for a couple more weeks. DR. AND MRS. G. G. Miller, Jeff and Pam, of Stanley Drive, were invited to spend Memorial Day with Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Edwards and family. The two men (both dentists) are former U. of M. classmates.

CLOWNING AROUND—Pam Carnahan (left) and Tammy Cullin provided a special touch to the Haggerty School Picnic Monday, May 26, as they turned up in colorful clown costumes. The two girls entertained youngsters and also passed out lollipops to outstretched hands. The first annual school picnic was termed a huge success as over 250 turned out for the pot-luck dinner.

Color Harmony Guides Given

Shocking pink and hot orange, once enemies, today make a great color combination.

Yesterday's rules that say, "brightest colors in smallest areas," and "cool, light colors for background areas" are often ignored, according to Kathleen Buton, home economist with the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service in Wayne and Oakland counties.

Although color combinations are freer and more exciting than in the past, some guides in color selection, and color coordination in home design are useful, said Kathleen Buton.

"Color Harmony for Interiors," a new booklet on selecting and coordinating colors for your home, is available free of charge from the Wayne County Cooperative Extension office in Wayne.

It's not just the man with the mask and gun who presents American business with its major theft problem. The white or blue collar employees do a good job too! Staff pilfering cost banks alone many millions of dollars. Retail employees are also far ahead of their professional competition, stealing twice as much as shoplifters. A fresh look at the spirit of lawlessness abroad in the land might be in order for many seemingly solid citizens. Like charity, law and order begin at home!

But proper cleaning begins here at HOOK'S CLEANERS, INC., and we have three locations to serve you: 32328 Michigan Ave., Wayne, PA 2-0162; 35 Main St., Belleville, 697-8600; and 37311 Goddard, Romulus, 941-1010. We are the drapery specialists, and offer fast 1-day service on cleaning. Our shirt laundry policy is "In by 10-out by 4".

Methodist Church Scene Of Hendrix-Held Vows

Arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums along with tall lighted tapers graced the altar of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville as Debra Ann Held and Ralph Douglas Hendrix exchanged wedding vows May 17. The Rev. Allen B. Rice, II, read the seven o'clock ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Schaerer, of 48024 Bemis road, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Hendrix, of 356 Brain avenue, Belleville.

Mrs. Glenn Miller was at the organ to play traditional bridal music and The Wedding March as Debbie approached the sanctuary with her father.

FOR HER wedding day, Debbie selected a satin A-line creation styled with scoop neckline and long lace sleeves ending in points at the wrist. Rhinestones and seed pearls, which etched the empire bodice, were repeated on the sleeves and on the chapel train which drifted from the waistline.

Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was caught to a cluster of flowers, each outlined with tiny pearls and a drop rhinestone. A bouquet of white gladioli and roses completed her bridal ensemble.

Diane Harcas, of Belleville, the bride's close friend, served as maid of honor. Vicky Harris, of Belleville, and the bride's sister, Laurie, were bridesmaid and junior attendant, respectively.

Diane appeared in a formal gown fashioned with white chiffon bodice accented by a ruffled stand-up collar on the V-neckline. Ruffles also banded the long sleeves. An olive green satin bow centered the high-rise waist where a sand beige A-line skirt was attached.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH D. HENDRIX

Vicky and Laurie wore identical frocks designed in apricot and sand beige and yellow and sand beige, respectively. All three wore beige veils secured by fresh yellow and white poms and their bouquets were in matching colors tied with olive green streamers.

RALPH ASKED his good friend, Larry Domeik, of Belleville, to be best man. The corps of ushers included Richard Held, the bride's brother who was home on leave from his U.S. Air Force base at Bellevue, Nebraska; Wendel Anderson, of Ypsilanti; and the bride's brothers, Ronald and Gary Held.

At the reception which followed in the Fellowship Hall of the church, Mrs. Schaerer received in an apricot crepe, A-line dress trimmed in silver with pale gray accessories. Her corsage was a deeper shade of apricot carnations and white roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a turquoise coat-dress ensemble and matching accessories. Her corsage was comprised of white carnations and yellow roses.

Mrs. Albert Straub, of Belleville, a close family friend, and Mrs. Gale Brady, aunt of the bride, cut and wrapped the wedding cake.

The bride's youngest sister, Tamara Schaerer, took charge of the guest book.

The bride's two grandmothers, Mrs. Merty Schaerer and Mrs. Ormon Reynolds, Sr., presided at the coffee service while Mrs. Carol Santure and Mrs. Ormon Reynolds, Jr., cousin and aunt of the bride, served punch.

For traveling to Niagara Falls and New York for a week-long honeymoon, the new Mrs. Hendrix changed to a three-piece knit suit in turquoise and white with white accessories. The newlyweds are now making their home in Flint at 2211 Reid street.

Both Debbie and Ralph graduated from Belleville High School in 1967. She later attended State Beauty College at Ann Arbor and prior to her wedding was employed at Ginger's Beauty Salon, in Belleville. Ralph has completed two of his four years at General Motors Institute and is employed by G.M. in Ypsilanti.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the bridegroom's parents, was held at Howard Johnson's.

First Graders Are Guests Of Teacher

ROMULUS—Thirty little "Eager Beavers" felt like V.I.P.'s when Mrs. Rivers took her first graders out to lunch on May 12 and May 20, 1969.

The first group had their treat in the dining room of "BAR HOP", where they enjoyed hamburgers, french fries, and Coca Cola.

The second group journeyed over to the Romulette Room at the Romulus Senior High School, where they were served by the Commercial Foods Department, under the supervision of Oscar Butler.

A SPECIAL menu of cream of chicken soup with vegetables, roasted wieners, french fries, pear halves decorated with a pretty face for a design, hot rolls with butter, and a large glass of punch was prepared. The best of all was home-made ice cream and cake for dessert.

Their manners proved how happy they were to be guests of their teacher. We are sorry that Crystal, Bertha, Eddie, James, Larry, and Kerry were ill and couldn't share the treat with the others, but they will still have the chance to dine with their teacher.

The class hopes they will get well soon and be back with us.

Teachers, Mrs. Clarissa Brown, Mrs. Matilde Dolen, Mrs. Allean Grant, Mrs. Fern Barlow, and Jordan Washington, assisted with the transportation.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD MARTIN

GREEN-POINTE Howingtons Back From Week-long Vacation

BY FLORA KROPAT 941-3621

Back from a week-long vacation are Kenny and Glenda Howington and their son, Jeff. They were the house guests of Joyce's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Howington, of Williamsburg, Pennsylvania.

During their stay in the sunny and clear weather, they visited a pottery where they had a chance to see how ovenware was made. They also had a chance to see glass being blown into vases.

Later that week they went to Jamestown and Yorktown, Virginia which took them back to the Civil War and Colonial days. They visited old battle fields and saw old cannons and ships. They also visited Jamestown which has been restored to the Early American way of life. Jeff was quite impressed by the Indians that were there.

They said it was a good trip, but they were glad to be back home.

Last Saturday afternoon a birthday party was held for Michale Kolb. About 12 children were there to help celebrate his fifth birthday. Several games were played including a balloon race, tossing the ball in the basket, and a foot race. After the games Michale opened his many cards and gifts assisted by his mother.

Later on refreshments of ice cream, punch and birthday cake were served.

After everyone had finished with refreshments they went out to the back yard and played with a horse shoe game Michale had received.

That evening Michale's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kolb, of Wyandotte, came over to wish him a happy birthday.

AT TAYLOR CHURCH Sally Sundquist Is May Bride Of Harold Martin

Double ring vows were solemnized May 17 at St. Paul's Church of Christ, in Taylor, uniting Sally Sundquist, of Inkster, and Harold Martin of Belleville.

Sally, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donia La Fave, of 7300 Woodside drive, Inkster, chose the same church in which her mother and grandmother had been married. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roberts, of 47232 Ayres street, Belleville, are parents of the bridegroom.

Some 200 friends and relatives attended the six thirty wedding officiated by the Rev. Stanley Hartman. Music for the ceremony was played by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lawrence Quiel, at the organ, and her uncle, Kenneth Berry, who was soloist.

ESCORTED TO the altar by her father, Sally appeared in white silk organza over taffeta. The A-line creation was in toe-touching length with appliques of lace frosting the skirt. The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and short sleeves with a circular train drifting down from the waist.

Her bouffant veil of silk illusion cascaded to elbow length from a petaled headpiece of organza and seed pearls. Completing her bridal finery was a small cascade bouquet of white roses and daisies tied with satin streamers.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Kenneth Spearman, of Dearborn, wore an A-line frock styled with a dark green linen bodice and lime green chiffon skirt. The long-sleeved, scooped neck bodice had a panel train topped with a self bow for back interest. Her headdress was a coronet of pearls edged with a matching veil and her bouquet was comprised of cascading daisies.

Identical ensembles in lime green and yellow were worn by the maid of honor, Debbie La Fave, another of the bride's sisters; and Mrs. Brian McNutt, and Lillian Phillips, both of Belleville. Each of the attendants also wore a daisy necklace, a gift from the bride.

THE BRIDE'S nephew and niece, Jimmie Spearman, six, and Kimberly Spearman, five, carried out the roles of ringbearer and flowergirl, respectively. Kim was dressed in a miniature version of her mother's frock and carried a basket filled with daisies.

The bridegroom asked Dick Zimmer, of Belleville, to serve as best man. Others on the esquire side were Jim Branin and Gary Fulton.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. La Fave donned a pink silk shantung coat-dress ensemble with matching accessories. A blue coat-dress costume with silver accessories was the choice of Mrs. Roberts for her son's wedding. Both mothers added corsages of white roses to their frocks.

The V.F.W. Hall, in Romulus, was reserved for the reception which followed. About 250 guests congratulated the young couple who are now making their home in Wayne.

Sally graduated from Romulus High School and Virginia Farrell Beauty School and is presently employed at Madelyn's Beauty Shop, Belleville. Her new husband, a Belleville High School alumnus, served with the U.S. Army and is now working for the Ford Motor Company's Wayne Trucking Plant.

Astral Rebekah Lodge Here Honors Past Noble Guards

BELLEVILLE - The Past Noble Guards of Astral Rebekah Lodge of Belleville were guests of honor last Tuesday evening, (May 22). The Lodge was instituted. (May 22, 1895).

Many people have come and gone within the Lodge in that period of time. Some have gone to their final rest, some have moved to distant parts of the country, but, for the ones still around here, it was a fine gathering.

A pot luck dinner was enjoyed as was a fine entertainment program. Noble Grand (Sister Helen Natelli) presented each one present with a nice gift as a remembrance of this event.

A nice surprise of the evening was the presence of the treasurer of the Rebekah Assembly of Michigan, Sister Zetta Timpson who stayed and took part in the meeting which followed. A salute to these fine outstanding members, who have given unstintingly of their time for many years, not only to the Lodge, but, in serving the whole community was made.

On May 24, a nice crowd enjoyed the Linen Games Party. Many lucky people took home, some hand crocheted pillow cases and linen towels. One lucky person was the winner of a beautiful handtatted sheet and pillow case set, which was made by Mrs. Lillian Katz, a Rebekah from Lincoln Park. Someone else took home a lovely hand made stole, made by Mrs. Ruth Ann Knysz of Romulus. All in all, everyone present agreed they had a very pleasant evening, whether they won anything or not.

SUNDAY MAY 25, a number of members of the Oddfellows Lodges and Rebekah Degrees, from Southwest Wayne County, assembled at the Wayne Temple, at Glenwood and Venoy in Wayne. Tribute was paid to the deceased members of the organization, who have passed away during the year.

The Memorial was conducted by members of Astral Rebekah Lodge of Belleville, in a very inspiring manner. The speaker for the service was representative James Tierney of Garden City, who very eloquently paid tribute to the principals of Oddfellowship. He said he spoke from experience, as he has been an Oddfellow for over 20 years.

At this time, the officers and members of Astral Rebekah Lodge wish to take this opportunity to thank all the merchants who donated a door prize for the Games party: Detroit Edison Company, Box Jewelers, Hamilton Hardware, Dancer's Department Store, Ben Franklin Store, Manning's, Gamble's, The Roberts Bros.,

Land Sale Request Approved

BELLEVILLE—A request by Sumpter Township to purchase a portion of land property at the Sumpter Elementary School site received the approval of a three member committee appointed by the Van Buren School Board to study the request.

The land parcel, about 3 to 4 acres, is located behind the Sumpter Township Hall. Township officials desire the parcel for an expansion program for the Township Hall.

A committee of Thomas Hopka, chairman, Mrs. Doris Roe, both school board members and James Egan, business manager, recommended to the School Board that legal steps be undertaken on the sale of the land to the Township.

Egan was instructed to proceed on this point by the School Board.

Van Buren Planners Study Development

BELLEVILLE—The Van Buren Planning Commission

have under study the potential site development plans for a commercial and multiple unit project proposed for the southwest corner of Ecorse and Haggerty Roads. Mrs. Erma Jean Payne, secretary, reported.

The preliminary site plans were presented at a public hearing held last Wednesday, May 28, on a request filed by the Van Buren Investment Company of Southfield, Michigan.

The firm asked that the present R-C zoning (single family residential) be amended to C1 (general business) and multiple dwelling.

The proposal project is slated to be built on approximately 74 acres of land. Fourteen of the acres would be selected for commercial units and the remainder for the construction of 846 multiple units.

There were no objections at the hearing.

Firm representatives gave an analysis of the present area zoning and reported that the company would be owners and operators of the development.

A breakdown of the multiple units proposed showed that 20 percent would be one bedroom units, 60 percent two bedroom units and 20 percent three bedroom units.

Day to remember in June: FATHER'S DAY - June 15

Bill Farmer knows a chap who hands out this card from time to time. "Remember me?" it starts. "I'm the fellow who goes into a restaurant, sits down, and patiently waits until the waitresses do everything but take my order."

"I'm the fellow who goes into a department store and stands quietly while the sales clerks finish their little chit chat."

"I'm the man who drives into a gas station and never blows his horn, but waits patiently while the attendant finishes reading his comic book."

"Yes, you might say I'm a good guy. But do you know who else I am?"

"I am the fellow who never comes back, and it amuses me to see you spending thousands of dollars every year to get me back into your store, when I was there in the first place, and all you had to do was give me a little service, show me a little courtesy."

Another important day to remember - School election - June 9.

Vacation Pay Plea Reduced

BELLEVILLE--A request for payment of accrued vacation made by Gerald E. McKelvey, resigned Director of Transportation, to the Van Buren Public Schools Board of Education has been denied in part.

The School Board meeting in one of its special sessions at various schools in the school system (Rawsonville Road School on May 26 ruled that the request by McKelvey, who resigned May 16, to enter private business, be denied and that he be paid for the three-week vacation for the present school year and not for an additional six weeks accumulated in a previous school year.

The ruling, it was said, was based on the principal that no administrative or school employee be permitted to accumulate vacation from previous years for pay or use.

The School Board reported of no previous instance of a similar request.

There are about 240 religious bodies in the U.S., with a membership of approximately 124-million.

By BEVERLY McANALLY

PTA officers, school board members, teachers, administrators and PTA committee chairmen enjoyed an evening of good fellowship and recognition of achievement at the annual Installation of Officers Banquet, of Romulus area PTA Council held May 20, at the Romulus Senior High School.

The dinner was prepared and served by Mrs. Pearl Bower and her staff and was enjoyed by the 200 people who attended the event.

Tables were decorated with the PTA colors of purple and gold, and a festive mood prevailed.

Mrs. May Cole, school social worker, was the installing officer and charged the new officials with the responsibilities of their positions. Special achievement awards were presented and retiring teachers were recognized and presented with certificates.

Robert L. McConeghy, Romulus Community Schools' Superintendent, welcomed the new PTA officers into the cooperative effort of education of children, and presented the retirement awards, giving a short anecdotal introduction of each teacher as he made the award.

The Membership Trophy was awarded to Mrs. Donna Lee Zavitz, membership chairman for Hayti Elementary School, for a total membership of 238, making the second year consecutively that Hayti has won the award.

A corsage of carnations was presented to the outgoing president by the new Council president, Mrs. Judy Gruber.

Following the awards and presentations, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources presented a slide film program concerning Coho fishing in Michigan Lakes.

School Naming Policy Set

CORY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PRINCIPAL, James Madigan, was an entertaining Master of Ceremonies who handled the presentation of the program with humor and finesse.

Cranbrook Graduates Maretka

BELLEVILLE-Mark Frank Maretka is a candidate for graduation at the thirty-ninth annual commencement exercises at Cranbrook School, June 7. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Maretka, 13688 Hannan.

The graduating class of 92 students will hear William T. Gossett, president of the American Bar Association, at the 11 a.m. ceremony at Christ Church Cranbrook.

She had sent her suggestion to the Board by letter.

The School Board members held that the present method of naming schools avoids disputes and arguments among residents.

It was pointed out by one board member that the School Board in another school district had quite a split-up among residents when a person's name was selected for one of its schools.

MARK MARETKA

Cranbrook School is an independent six-year college preparatory, boarding and day school for boys which enrolls students from all parts of the United States and several foreign countries. It is one of the six institutions of Cranbrook, a cultural and educational center.

Mark will continue his education at the University of Michigan. This year he was president of the Glee Club. Previously he attended Belleville High School.

AT SUMPTER CENTER

Free Chest X-Rays Are Now Available

SUMPTER-One of the most concerted efforts of the year to find unknown cases of tuberculosis and other chest abnormalities will be made in Wayne County during June.

With more than 1,000,000 persons in Michigan known to be carrying TB germs in their bodies-most being residents of the Metropolitan Detroit area-the stopped up effort could save many persons from periods of hospitalization.

Mobile units will visit some 20 locations that are on a regular schedule of visits and at least six more locations where community groups are joining the efforts of local health departments working in conjunction with the TB and Health Society, a Christmas Seal agency.

For the Belleville and surrounding areas a mobile unit will be at the Sumpter Health Center, 24101 Sumpter Road, today (Wednesday, June 4) from 2 to 8 p.m.; On Thursday, June 5, from 1 to 8 p.m. and on Friday, June 6 from 2 to 8 p.m.

The chest checking project is sponsored by the Sumpter Progressive Civic League.

Of the 14,000 banks in the U.S. more than 4,000 now issue credit cards, according to Sen. William Proxmire.

All our goods are given away free to any one that needs help," Mrs. Rosa M. Shropshire, Director, said.

"We have already helped 250 families, not only in Sumpter, but also from Belleville, Inkster, Ypsilanti, New Boston, Milan, and Flatrock. There are no strings attached. The needy come to the CENTER and we help," she added.

The Sumpter Clothing Center is a non-profit charity run by local people who receive donations of used clothing, furniture, food.

The program depends entirely upon donations and benefits only the poor.

The Center needs money for operating expenses such as telephone and electricity and donations for the new playground project.

SEEKS SCHOOL BOARD POST

Don Juchartz Gives Views On Area Educational Needs

BELLEVILLE—The Van Buren Public School District will hold its annual school election on June 9. There are three candidates seeking to fill one four-year term on the Board of Education.

In the following comments, Donald D. Juchartz, 40, of 47103 Lauren Court, currently Wayne County Extension Director for Michigan State Extension Service, voices his thinking on some of the educational needs of the school district:

In citing the need for an increased emphasis on vocational training Juchartz, has pointed out that "for the first time in the history of a major nation in the world and in the history of the United States, there are more people employed in service industries than in production." He continued by saying that "this means we should be training our young people for vocations they can easily work into when graduating from high school. It is a mistake to assume that every youngster should automatically be expected to go to college and that a major emphasis in his high school training should point him in that direction."

Many young people should go on to advanced academic training and they will make a great future contribution to their communities and country, but for those whose future can best be served by training them in vocational subjects, in addition to the basic academic needs, a well-rounded curriculum should be available to them."

County Extension Director, he comes into contact with business of all kinds that is in urgent need of personnel.

The jobs that are going unfilled are those of a technical nature and in the middle-management area. Being convinced of the need for additional training in vocational skills, Juchartz was an early supporter of the Community College concept in Wayne County, having been a member of the Executive Committee of the original Study Committee to determine the need for additional academic opportunities in the county.

In many talks throughout the area, he has pointed out that "local education, based on the needs of the student and the community can produce more tangible rewards to all concerned, in terms of jobs and opportunities for people, more productive industry, better communities and a less expensive form of education."

EDUCATION IS vital to the continued progress and prosperity of this country, Juchartz believes, but the means of financing the educational system, through local property taxes, must be changed. "Land values have increased on an average of ¼ per cent a year, except in metropolitan areas where they have accelerated faster," Juchartz declared, "and this works a hardship on people whose equity in their estate is built solely upon property."

"In my opinion it is far more reasonable to find another means of financing education than to depend entirely upon a property tax. I am for a reduction in the property tax rate supplemented with something like an income tax where everyone has the opportunity to participate regardless of whether or not he owns real estate."

"However, we need to retain some property tax in our educational support so we can still have local control of the educational processes in our school districts."

JUCHARTZ HAS an impressive list of credits and accomplishments to back up his candidacy, with wide experience in business, education, government and civic affairs.

He formerly was sales manager of an agricultural marketing firm, in the Bay City area, doing a half-million dollar yearly business. He has acted as a business consultant to firms in three states outside of Michigan. He has been on the faculty of Michigan State University for thirteen years, where he advanced from a graduate research assistant (he has both a bachelor and master of science degree in horticulture) to Horticultural Extension Agent, County Agricultural Agent and finally to Wayne County Extension Director, the position he now holds, where he is in administrative control of the total Extension program of Michigan State University in Wayne County.

what's a funny place for a phone?

That depends on your sense of humor. If interrupting your washing or ironing to rush upstairs to answer the telephone leaves you breathless, then an extension telephone makes good sense.

An extension telephone saves steps and lets you do your telephoning from where you are. You can select from many smart styles and decorative colors.

Call your Michigan Bell Business Office or ask your telephone man. For as little as ninety-five cents a month (plus tax) you can have an extension telephone in any funny old place you'd like.

Ford Hails Ceiling on Farm Subsidies

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman William D. Ford (Democrat-15th District) took a leading role Tuesday, May 27, in a debate which resulted in House approval of a $20,000 limitation on farm-subsidy payments.

The $20,000 ceiling was approved by a 225-142 vote in the form of an amendment to an agriculture appropriations bill.

Ford, who voted for the amendment, made a strong plea on the House floor in urging his colleagues to adopt the $20,000 limitation.

He recalled that a similar provision was placed in the farm appropriation bill last year, but was later dropped in a House-Senate Conference before final approval of the bill.

"We are once again presented with an opportunity to put some controls on the unmanageable giveaway aspect of Federal farm programs," Ford told his colleagues.

Charging that the farm program was subsidizing millionaire farmers with Government funds, Ford cited one farm owner who received payments last year totaling more than $3,000,000. Many received subsidies ranging into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, and more than 16,000 farmers received payments of over $15,000 each.

"This farm program as now carried out bears no relationship to earlier programs which were designed to meet the pressing problems of the family farmer," Ford declared.

To extend the subsidy program, he added, would be a "serious breach of faith with the American taxpayer."

"These taxpayers have recently been told that the surtax must be extended, and that a much-needed increase in Social Security benefits should be delayed. We should apply the same scrutiny to our farm programs that we are applying to our tax structure," Ford said. "Payment of over $1,000,000 to one farm-owner is just as unreasonable as allowing 22 Americans who had incomes over $1,000,000 to pay no income tax at all in 1967."

Ford cited a survey made by former Under Secretary of Agriculture John A. Schnitzler, who reported that a $20,000 ceiling on farm payments could be established without serious adverse effects on production or on the effectiveness of Federal production-adjustment programs. Schnitzler also reported that budget savings of up to $300,000,000 annually could be made by establishing such a ceiling.

Terming the huge subsidy payments as an "absurd boondoggle," Ford predicted that American taxpayers would not accept it much longer.

"It is an insult to the average taxpayer's intelligence to ask him to pull in the belt of fiscal restraint, to extend the surtax, to cut desperately needed manpower training programs, to live on Social Security payments that dwindle in purchasing power every time the newest cost-of-living and consumer-price indexes come out, and then to turn around and allow this kind of subsidy to huge corporate farms to exist."

"I oppose passage of this appropriation for the present farm subsidy program without some control on the dollar limit of payments. I do not do so unmindful of the pressing needs of our American family farmer."

"Many of us recognize that the problems of the great population centers are worsened each day by the tremendous migration of people from the farms to the cities. I believe we must use the resources of the Federal Government to strengthen and protect the legitimate economic interests of the Americans who live and work in agriculture."

"However, I do not believe the present programs are doing this," Ford charged. "The present programs are, as a matter of fact, driving families from the farms and replacing them with absentee corporate landholders who provide neither employment nor farm products in return for the expenditure of billions of dollars in Federal funds."

Ford, who voted against the surtax when it was established last year, has announced that he will oppose President Nixon's proposal to extend the surtax unless it is accompanied by income tax reform and by reductions in non-essential expenditures such as excessive farm subsidies.

President Nixon has also announced his opposition to the $20,000 ceiling on farm payments, leading Congressman Ford to predict that it will be even more difficult than last year to get the Senate to approve the plan.

MEAs Adds to Staff To Aid Teacher Units

Three additional staff members have been appointed by the Michigan Education Association to assist Wayne County MEA affiliated teacher-units conclude teacher contract negotiation for next year.

M. James Hart, Inkster, a classroom teacher in the Westwood School District, was named Assistant Director of the MEA Metro Area Center.

George Trudell, Redford Township, a classroom teacher in the Crestwood system and James Carlson, Allen Park, a teacher in the Taylor School District, were named Professional Negotiations Consultants.

THE NEW appointments were announced by Richard W. Croll, Director, MEA Metro Area Center, located in Garden City, Mich., which services all of suburban Wayne County.

The three men have completed a training program and are to begin their new assignments at the conclusion of the present school year," Croll said.

"With their help in assisting individual units, we are hopeful that meaningful contracts with the remaining 22 MEA affiliated units in the County can be amicably reached before the end of the present school year," he stated.

ON CONTRACTS

CROLL SAID the bargaining process has been extremely slow this year.

"Only three units—Riverview, Northville and Trenton—have completed negotiations," he continued. These are multiple-year agreements.

"Three other units, Westwood, Fairlane and Dearborn Heights No. 7, have not yet begun contract discussions," said Croll.

While each individual unit establishes its own contract objectives, Croll said many of the units are seeking methods of attracting and retaining qualified and experienced teachers in the system.

IN SOME instances, he said, classroom equipment and instructional materials for students is under discussion in the negotiation process.

Units still negotiating include: Allen Park, Crestwood, Dearborn Heights No. 7, Fairlane, Flat Rock, Garden City, Grosse Ile, Grosse Pointe, Huron, Lincoln Park, Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Union, River Rouge, South Redford, Romulus, Wayne, Westwood, Woodhaven, Wyandotte, Van Buren, Bibraltair and Ecorse.

4-H Awards Offered For Top Performance

Again this year, outstanding 4-H members will concentrate on summarizing their achievements and updating their project records with the hope of competing for a 1969 4-H Achievement award.

For the 18th straight year the Ford Motor Company Fund is sponsoring the national 4-H Achievement program conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Awards consist of 12 national scholarships of $600 each; one all expense trip per state for a delegate to the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago; gold-plated medals for four country winners.

AS THE name suggests, this program is a wrap up of all phases of 4-H work ranging from animal science to home economics. In judging winners, particular attention is given to community and school activities, junior leadership, and civic awareness.

Excellence in individual projects where initiative and steady progress are apparent puts the boy or girl in the lead, as does personal development, according to a 4-H spokesman. Last year nearly 8,800 young people across the country received an achievement honor medal.

To be eligible for a state or national award, the youths must be over 14 years of age, have completed at least three years of 4-H work, and write a 2,000 word essay on 4-H experiences.

THE 12 scholarships are awarded to six boys and girls. A survey of the 1968 recipients revealed that they ranged in age from 17 to 19 years, and were 4-H members from 7 to 10 years. Eight already were in college and the other four planned to attend.

All the boys lived on farms and carried livestock and crops projects.

Of the girls, three lived on farms and three in small towns. All excelled in home economics projects.

EMU Offers Crime Courses

YPSILANTI--Graduate studies in the area of crime, delinquency and correction will be offered at Eastern Michigan University in the fall. The program will lead to a Master of Arts degree offered by the Department of Sociology.

Authorities have realized for some time the "need for an entirely new stance" in the field of criminology. An increasing demand has been noted for workers with advanced graduate training. Teaching students to prepare themselves for change is the purpose of this new area specialization at Eastern.

Among those expected to be attracted to this program are probation and parole workers and those who work with juveniles.

Interest has already been displayed by police, teachers and even one newspaper reporter, according to Edward Green, head of the department.

Required courses will include Criminology, Causes of Crime, Treatment of Crime and Social Deviance.

Associated with Green in the new offering is Werner Einstadter, associate professor of sociology.

Further information may be obtained from Department of Sociology, Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, 48197.

Pettus, Hughes Win 2 All-Area Berths

MAKING A COMEBACK—After he saw his hopes for the high hurdle trophy shatter when he fell over the last hurdle, Larry Smith, of Romulus, (in white sweat-shirt) made a dramatic comeback to win the low hurdles. Above, he receives the first place trophy from Wayne Jaycee representative Emile Gewais. In second place was Inkster's Bobby Hartfield and Garrade Pettus was third.

Belleville '9' Leaves Conference Scene Even

Belleville roared back from a disappointing Suburban Six Conference baseball year to trim rival Robichaud 8-3 in the final game of the 1969 campaign.

Falling far short of Coach Vitold Kaminski's expectations, the Tigers were forced to settle for an even 5-5 league record and missed the .500 mark overall with a 8 win - 9 loss performance.

Dick Wenzel was working on a no-hitter when Robichaud collected two hits in the last stanza to ruin his hopes. But the Tiger pitcher did find 13 strikeouts in his third victory against only one loss.

Paul Doran who stayed on until the sixth and was relieved for sophomore Phil Rochelle took the loss. The starter struck out seven and walked one.

Belleville tucked the game away in the third with six runs. Steve Burger's triple with two men aboard provided the key hit. Teammate Bruce Barn also collected his fourth HR of the season when he blasted a Doran fast ball for a four-bagger with Norm Harrington aboard.

Bara had a double and single aside from his round-tripper for a 3 for 4 performance at the plate while Burger, aside from that two-run triple, also connected for a single.

Robichaud got on the scoreboard in the fourth, turning a couple of miscues and a double steal into two runs. In the seventh, Brown got to Wenzel for the first hit and moved to second on a fielder's choice. He scored on Brent Conley's single.

Keith Taylor frustrated the Tiger line-up as he pitched a two-hitter in leading Redford Union to a 3-0 victory over Belleville in the Suburban Six Conference wrap up.

Taylor fanned nine and was in perfect control except for a brief spell in the fourth inning. Bara hammered the first hit in that inning and Gary Gentile moved him to second with a bunt single.

But the Tigers left both runners stranded and that was the only time they seriously threatened throughout the entire game.

John Yocum made his final pitching appearance in the "6" league and left the scene with the loss. He had notched six strikeouts and walked none.

Redford Union scored all the runs they needed in the bottom of the fourth.

One consolation for the Tigers, they have to their credit a victory over Allen Park, the newly crown champ. The Jaguars unseated Redford Union as the new ruler.

Junior High Track Meet in Wayne

Junior high athletes in Wayne will get a chance to show their ability today when the annual city meet is held at Wayne Memorial High School.

The meet, between five ninth grade teams and four eighth grade squads, will begin at 2 p.m. Ribbons will be awarded to the winners and up to the fifth place finisher.

Meet Manager is Bill Hawley, head track coach at Wayne Memorial High.

Philadelphia's policemen have been told to clip their long sideburns.

GARRADE PETTUS. YANCEY HUGHES. Two names that area track fans have heard throughout the 1969 high school season, were heard again and again Friday at Garden City East where the first All-Area Track Meet was staged before 200 fans.

Pettus, a lanky, six foot sophomore from Belleville who placed second in the State Finals with his performance in the high jump, and Hughes, a dynamic athlete from Dearborn Heights' Robichaud High, who was the team's top point-getter, won two events each to dominate the selections.

Pettus became the ANP's All-Area pick in the high jump after clearing 6 foot to place first in that event, beating out Wayne Memorial's Bob Howard and Inkster's Michael Bonam.

The 16-year-old athlete came back to win the long jump on a leap of 21 feet 4 1/2 inches. Again Bonam was forced to settle for the runnerup spot and Glenn's Paul Chaveriat was third.

Hughes dominated the dashes. The Bulldog senior crossed the finish line for the 100-yard in 9.9 and nipped Romulus' Roy Williams and Cherry Hill's Tom Kish for the honors. He came back with a 22.5 for the 220 yard dash to duplicate Pettus' double victory.

Coach Bernie Ingle's relay teams also dominated the scene and were chosen for All-Area recognition after their hard-fought victories. The Bulldogs used Wallace Johnson, Chris Slupek, George McClure and Keith Ledford for the mile and they responded with a 3:24.7 and the 880-foursome of John Lester, Hughes Johnson and Willie Hollins turned in a 1:29.

If there were a surprise in the field events, it came in the pole vault where Wayne Memorial's Ben Cline, who had previously soared 13 feet, 4 inches, but failed to qualify in the meet.

Belleville's Larry Merritt went on to capture top honors in the event with a leap of 12 feet, 11 inches while Ken Kinast (GCW) and David Brown (Romulus) were second and third, respectively.

John Glenn's senior shot-putter, Garry Schleicher stayed true to form and hurled the shot 50 feet, 4 1/2 inches to prove he's the top man in this area for the event. Walter Smith, of Inkster, settled for second and Jim Craig, of Franklin, was third.

Franklin's Jim Kosteva turned "on the gas" in the 2-mile and produced a 9:54.7 to beat out challengers Gary Schulz, of Wayne, and George Simmons, of Robichaud, for top honors.

Robichaud had another member of its team placed on the All-Area squad when miler Chris Slupek turned back Wayne's Richard Meyer and Glenn's Dick Dittmar in one of the most exciting events of the day. The winner had a 4:30.4 clocking.

A surprise finish in the high hurdles led to Romulus' Larry Smith's defeat and a victory for Inkster's Bobby Hartfield. Running "neck-and-neck" to the last hurdle with Hartfield, Smith suddenly fell and stayed down while Hartfield continued on to a 15.5 victory.

Smith recovered in time to come back and run in the low hurdles where again he was challenged by Hartfield. This time Smith set the pace and won it with a 20.6 clocking. Hartfield settled for the second place medal.

In the half-mile, with Chris Collins absence from the field, Mike Fant enjoyed a holiday as he won an easy victory and trophy with a 2:01.8. Collins, the Franklin ace, was invited to the Kalamazoo "Meet of Champions" and turned up at East in time to compete in the mile relay run.

Romulus' Johnny Wilson was the guy to catch in the 440 and neither Ernie Righetti or Keith Ledford (Robichaud) was ready for the challenge.

Wilson carded a 49.6.

Righetti, in placing second, however, set a new Wayne Memorial school record when he turned up at the finish line with a 49.6. The previous mark was held by Joe Johnson at 50.6.

The meet, the first of its kind, was co-sponsored by the Associated Newspapers and the Wayne Jaycees. The winners were presented with trophies, while second through sixth place finished were given medals.

Romulus Teetering in League

Romulus may be in dire need of help in order to salvage a slice of the Twin Valley Conference title, but senior hurler Rick Paglia and coach Lowell Johnson's Eagles proved they're in control of the downriver tournament where Paglia posted his second shutout victory to carry his team into the quarter-finals.

Romulus, teetering on the brink of handing over their share of the league title, faces Ecorse Thursday in the league wrap-up. The crucial game, to be played at 4 p.m. at Romulus, could be only a prestige match if someone else hasn't gotten to the league leader by show-down time.

The Eagles are 8-3 going into the match while Ecorse, the co-defending champ, has sustained only one loss.

Whatever the outcome of tomorrow's game, Romulus had the satisfaction of defeating the Raiders at the Wyandotte Tournament. In a pitchers' duel won by Paglia, the Eagles blanked the downriver powerhouse 1-0.

Paglia, who earlier defeated Grosse Ile 2-0, pitched a four-hitter against Romulus' nemesis, Bruce Vida, a right-hander who notched 14 strikeouts and walked none in. He also gave up four hits.

The Romulus pitcher scrambled the goose-eggs on the scoreboard when he blasted a run-scoring single in the third. Frank Mayeran set the stage when he started the inning with a triple—the only extra-base hit.

"It was a beautifully played game on both sides," said winning coach Johnson. "We haven't seen two teams that have played better ball this season."

Romulus snuffed out Ecorse's final threat in the last inning with their second double-play of the game. Mayeran fielded a grounder at third and relayed it on to Paul Seestedt for the second out and Seestedt's throw to Tom Block got the runner for the final out of the game.

In the opening game of the tournament, Paglia scattered two Grosse Ile hits as the

DOING THE FLOP—They call the style of high jump, the "Fosbury Flop", and Belleville's Garrade Pettus showed he knew how to do his thing. He leaped six feet to win a berth on the All-Area team and then became "greedy" and won the long-jump to pick up his second first place trophy and became the All-Area representative in the long jump as well with a 21' 4 1/2 inch performance.

Frustrating Season for Huron '9'

It's been a frustrating season for Huron coach Ron Smith and his Chiefs but signs of better things to come are on the horizon.

heap of memories," said Coach Smith. "But the only way we're going to solve our problems is to keep them in the open and discuss them.

isn't ready and because of this we are late in preparing for the season and that reflected on our performance.

"I know a 3-13 record is better buried between the problems is the field — ours

Sports Meridian

Livonia Franklin and Robichaud but they missed the athletes from St. Mary's and East and Huron.

And they saw competition at its best—there were no more tomorrow for those competing, if they wanted an All-Area berth and medal, they would have to prove it right then and there.

And they saw Larry Smith, just a couple of steps away from victory in the high hurdles, stumble and fall on the last hurdle and lose his first bid for a trophy. There were other heartbreaks—Chris Collins, Livonia Franklin's ace half-miler was robbed of an opportunity to prove he's the best in the 880 in this area because he had earlier received an invitation to compete in the Meet of Champions up at Kalamazoo.

There was a touch of humor, too.

There was this six-year-old youngster who raced off with one of the medals and the Sports Meridian galloped after him—all 250 pounds of him. Yeh, the boy won. He got away. (He's sure going to make a good sprinter one of these days.)

(If there's a little man in your household about seven years old, blond hair, about knee-high and is bragging about a medal "he found or won", let him keep it, but if he's bragging that he outran the Meridian, then, papa, would you turn him over and tan his hide!

If there were any losers at that meet, aside from myself, I surely didn't see any. We all took something away with us.

Nevertheless, there was one issue we couldn't settle last week. Mr. Ketelhut, of Garden City, feels that since the meet is labeled "All-Area", then, any high school athletes in the area should have the right to compete.

The meet is open to the top performers from the high schools covered by the ANP.

"Our boy has run the mile in a time which would qualify him for this meet," said Ketelhut, "and I don't see why he be denied an opportunity to compete. It is, afterall, an "All-Area" meet.

"And I am certain that there are others who attend schools outside their respective city limits but live in reach of your newspapers who would want to compete."

I had no ready answer for Mr. Ketelhut. I can see the validity of his argument. I promised to pass the buck to the coaches and they'll have something to say, Mr. Ketelhut, you can bet on that."

Before we leave the prep track world, and welcome those minions—the Little Leaguers—I, personally, and I know I'm speakin' for all of the coaches, want to thank Barry Basel and his wife, Caryl, for the wonderful job they did in compiling the weekly track & field results.

We hope it didn't inconvenience you folks, none. But as a very old pro, we know how frustrating that job can get.

Thanks, again.

Let's pass that baton to Wayne Memorial's Bill Hawley for the following season. He says he's eager and willing to gather the data.

"I'll be glad to help," said Hawley, "if I'm around that is."

Going somewhere, Bill?

"As long as we delay getting our facilities in shape, we're going to have problems winning," said Smith.

Their was no question of winning last week — it was a question of surviving for Huron as Grosse Ile blanked the Chiefs and Craig Adaline 15-2 which preceded a 13-0 shellacking from Allen Park, one of the best team's in the state this season.

Edmonds, however, did connect for a bases empty home run in the sixth in a losing cause against league rival, Monroe Jefferson, last week. Jim Inman, pitching with only one day rest, was the losing pitcher.

The Chiefs dropped that one 8-2.

Coach Smith's problems

started in the Monroe Tournament where Redford rallied for three unearned runs in the last of the seventh to win a close 7-6 decision.

Edmonds, this time went to the mound with one day rest, and looked strong until that last frame. He whiffed three and walked three. Inman and Don Delano each collected a pair of hits in the loss while Edmonds blasted a double.

In a heart-breaking defeat, Huron scored two runs in the fourth against Monroe Catholic Central and went 10 innings before yielding a 3-2 game over to their league foes.

Inman, looking his best for the year, struck out 10 and took the loss.

The Chiefs scored their runs when Doug Hicks walked and was sacrificed by Bob Guntow, Jerry Dulecki's double drove in one run while Joe Sumenick singled in the last Chief run.

In what Smith called, "his team's best game of the year," Huron scored one run in the last inning to beat Flat Rock 2-1.

Edmonds survived nine hits to win it. He had five whiffs and two walks.

Flat Rock loaded the bases in the bottom of the seventh to cause the Huron Chief some concern, but they smothered the rally with a double play.

The Chiefs went ahead in the third when Al Michling walked and stole second. A throwing error got him to third and he scored when Lester Killingbeck cracked a single.

They got what proved to be the winning run when Sumenick was safe on an error and was sacrificed to second by Dulecki. With two-away, Edmonds singled to win it for himself and the team.

Hogan 3rd in Big '10' Judo Meet

East Lansing, Mich.—Tom Hogan, a 1967 graduate of St. Mary's High School, placed third in the 139-pound competition at the recent Big Ten judo championships.

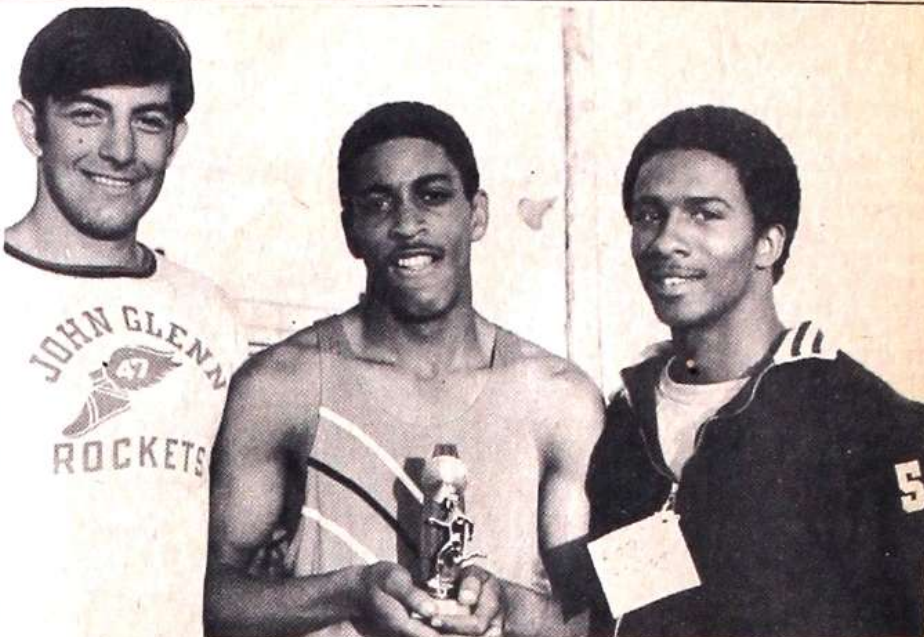

Hogan, a chemical engineering sophomore, is a member of the Michigan State Judo Club which won the conference team title May 17, at the University of Illinois.

Final Prep Chapter to Reveal All-Area

The final chapter of the 1968-69 high school athletic season has been written. For some it was a successful year with victories overshadowing their defeats—for many their were records and medals waiting at the end of the finish line or on the mats.

And for everyone, there was excitement!

Now, with this edition of the ASSOCIATED NEWSPAPERS, comes the mythical and honorary All-Area Teams. Today, the ANP uncovers its annual All-Area Track Team and the Coach of the Year.

Glenn Winds Up Best

Jerry Decker advanced to the final round of the Northwest Suburban League All-Conference Meet, held at John Glenn, but the Rocket failed to win what would have been Glenn's first tennis individual championship as the senior lost the deciding match in his fourth singles bracket.

Glenn's final league record stands at 6-4, the best ever for a Rocket tennis team with the overall mark at 13-9.

Decker made his way into the final round of competition for the fourth singles title by staving off a last-ditch attack from his semi-final opponent from Groves.

A 9-3 quickly diminished to only one game before the Rocket stashed away the victory.

Romulus

Eagles scored runs in the first and sixth to chalk up a 2-0 victory. The eagle pitcher chalked up five strikeouts and walked four.

Horn's single, a sacrifice by Rod Pennington and Leon Janes' single, accounted for the first inning run while Block's single, a couple of errors and two walks led to the sixth inning tally.

In league competition last week, Romulus kept its hopes burning with a 7-4 victory over Willow Run and a 4-3 triumph over the Panthers at River Rouge.

Lee Ballard went the distance against the Flyers who, after a shaky start, settled down to play ball. The Eagles gave their sophomore pitcher six runs to work with in the opening frame and he scattered eight hits en route to his fourth win in eight starts.

For all purposes, it was all over in the first inning when Ballard started the six-run-rally with a double. Seestedt, Block, Mayeran all drew bases on balls and Pennington's double cleaned up those bases.

John Toporek singled in Pennington. Toporek, however, was the only Romulus batter to get more than one hit—he had a pair of singles.

found themselves in semi-final competition in the meet. Second singles Bob Morton won his first round match but failed to follow up in the next round.

The 15-year-old soph also nipped Rouge, 4-3, on a six-hitter. He whiffed nine and fanned two.

Romulus broke a 3-all last inning tie when Block singled and came home when the shortstop muffed Blaine Cappaert's ground ball.

Belleville unsuccessfully battled back after Romulus scored four runs in the first inning to tie up the score in the fourth with two runs of their own in the first and one each in the third and fourth innings. But the Eagles got to losing pitcher John Yocum for three in the fourth to win a 7-4 nonleague verdict.

Yocum struck out five and walked two while Chris Glinski fanned one and walked three.

Janes and Mayeran drove in a pair of runs in the first while a couple of walks, sacrifices and errors led to that three run fourth. Janes had a pair of singles in three trips to the plate and Mayeran collected a double and single.

Gary Gentile led the hitting assault for the Tigers as he hammered out a double and single while teammate Chuck Sheets connected for a double and a single.

Youth Commission

LANSING—Creation of a Michigan Youth Commission within the Department of Social Services is authorized under a bill given approval by the senate appropriation committee this week, Sen. N. Lorraine Beebe (R-12th District) said today.

"I am delighted that the appropriations committee approved this bill," said Sen. Beebe, who sponsored the measure.

"Like a lot of legislation, it is not all we wanted but it would do much toward creating a concerned agency and an understanding attitude toward the youth of Michigan, especially the disadvantaged and others who, through lack of proper leadership early in life, run afoul of the law."

Sen. Beebe said the proposed commission would be under the direction of a nine-member board working through an executive director.

THE BILL, which must have approval of the full senate and house of representatives, provides for a full-time, three-member parole and review board which would have the power to rule on cases involving juveniles.

"We had hoped that this would be a separate department of government but the pressures on the governor by several agencies for designation of the twentieth, and last, authorized department are extremely intense. We feel that a youth commission, if given proper latitude of action, would prove a very effective force in improving the welfare of our young people even though assigned through another department."

Chrysler Official Named Head of United Foundation

A Chrysler Corp. vice president who began his career as a 55-cents-an-hour assembly line worker in the Jefferson Avenue Plant was named president of the United Foundation today.

Thomas F. Morrow, Chrysler group vice president, defense-space and diversified products, succeeded Wendell W. Anderson Jr., UF president for the last three years.

Anderson, president, Bundy Corp., took over from financier Max M. Fisher as UF board chairman.

Fisher, who is board chairman of New Detroit and President Nixon's recently named special consultant on voluntary action, will join Benson Ford as an honorary chairman of the UF board.

THE CHANGES in UF leadership came at the 20th annual meeting in the Statler Hilton Hotel.

Along with electing officers, the UF named 28 new directors, added 10 executive committee members, renamed last year's finance committee and added two members to the Capital Fund Division.

Nearly 600 community leaders gathered for the luncheon meeting and an address by George W. Romney, U.S. secretary of housing and urban development.

Chairman Fisher presided at the annual meeting and credited the UF with "launching my career in voluntary service."

He termed the UF "a healthy organization which since its founding has matured, developed flexibility, adaptability, tolerance and a responsiveness to change."

What Doctors Think

By Wayne Rickert

These are the words of four eminent doctors who have spoken out against sex education:

William McGrath, M.D. (psychiatrist, Phoenix, Ariz.) "There is a phase of personality development called the latency period during which the healthy child is not interested in sex. This interval from about the age of five until adolescence serves a very important biological purpose. It affords a child an opportunity to develop his own resources, his beginning physical and mental strength. Premature interest in sex is unnatural and will arrest or distort the development of the personality. Sex education should not be foisted on children; should not begin in the grade schools. Anyone who would deliberately arouse the child's curiosity or stimulate his unready mind to troubled sexual preoccupations ought to have a millstone tied around his neck and be cast into the sea."

Rhoda L. Lorand, Ph.D. (psychologist, New York City) "Twenty-five years ago, I and many other child analysts might have enthusiastically endorsed school sex education... because we believed at that time that emphasis on sexual knowledge could do no harm, only good. We have since learned that it is harmful to force sexual preoccupation on children... forcing of sexual preoccupation on the child is very likely to result in sexual difficulties in adulthood, and it can lead to disturbed behavior in childhood."

Melvin Ansell, M.D. (Los Angeles, Cal.) "Sex educators are concerned about teaching children the mechanics of mating. Such instruction is comparable to training geese to fly South in the winter. Trying to teach children about sex without arousing sensuous feelings is about as hypocritical or naive as trying to describe the nature of fire without acknowledging the heat produced. Some adults expect children to express admiration and joy with learning about sex. These adults cannot believe that shattering the fantasies and doubts of children without proper aging can act as a premature seduction causing irreparable psychological harm including perversion."

Max Levin, M.D. (Psychiatrist, New York Medical College) "But sadly, many of our sex educators, even among those who are highly respected, seem (in my opinion) to be confused and they are leading our youngsters astray. I disagree with the STECUS (Sex Information & Education Council of the U.S.) position that sex education 'must not be moral indoctrination'. I speak not as a shatterer but as a psychiatrist. There cannot be emotional health in the absence of high moral standards and a sense of human and social responsibility. I know that today morality is a 'dirty word' but we must help our youth to see that moral codes have meaning beyond theology; they have psychological and sociological meaning."

The preservation of some fundamental standards of sexual morality is essential to the survival of nations. History has many examples of nations and civilizations which fell after widespread abandonment of the moral standards. Sex education involving the most intimate and personal aspects of family life and the fundamental religious conviction of family members should not be forced on children against the will of their parents. Or so it seems to me.

Michigan Gala Events List Await Michigan Vacationist

Festivals and fairs, interspersed with races, shows and community celebrations, await the Michigan vacation traveler this summer.

The Michigan Tourist Council's June-September Events Calendar, just off the press, lists more than 200 summertime activities and events for the entertainment and enjoyment of Michigan visitors.

German bands, food and entertainment are in store for visitors to the Bavarian Festival, Frankenmuth, June 8-14, and to the Alpenfest, Gaylord, July 16-19, when the residents of the two communities dress in traditional Bavarian costume and offer old world hospitality.

The Danish Festival, August 23, Greenville, is a tribute to the Danish heritage of much of the population of the area. A two-hour parade followed by an art show, band concert and other entertainment are featured.

AN ALL Danish smorgasbord will be among the many attractions at the festival.

Speed and excitement are the promise of the Motor State 500 Automobile Race, Michigan International Speedway, Irish Hills, June 15.

Speed also is the watchword on June 29, when the Detroit River will be churned up by some of the world's fastest powerboats when the World's Championship for Unlimited Hydroplanes is held in Detroit.

For those who like travel at a slightly slower pace, the Calendar lists the Annual Bridge Walk, Sept. 1, Mackinaw City, and the AuSable River Canoe Race, from Grayling to Oscoda, August 1-3. For a sports change of pace there will be an International Frisbee Tournament, July 5-6, Calumet-Laurium.

ART SHOWS and festivals abound throughout Michigan during the summer months. More than a baker's dozen are listed in the Calendar, starting with the Clothesline Art Show, Kalamazoo, June 7, and winding up with the Waterfront Art Fair, Charlevoix, August 9.

Among the many water-oriented community events listed in the Events Calendar are the Inboard Boat Races, Ford Lake, Ypsilanti, June 14-15; The Seaway Festival, Muskegon, June 28-July 5, and the Water Festival, White Cloud, July 3-5. Water Festivals will also be held at Saugatuck, July 26; Charlevoix, July 26-27, and at Watersmeet, July 27.

More than 60 Fairs are listed in the latest Events Calendar, starting with the Lake Odessa Fair, July 3-6, and ending with the Hillsdale County Fair, September 21-27. The Upper Peninsula State Fair, August 12-17, Escanaba, and the Michigan State Fair, Detroit, August 22-Sept. 1, are also listed.

INCLUDED ALSO in the Michigan Calendar of Events are the National Coho Salmon Festival at Honor, the Old Car Festival, Greenfield Village, the Potato Festival, Posen, the Historic Homes Tour, Marshall and hundreds of other interesting community activities.

The June-September Michigan Calendar of Events and other free vacation planning information and materials may be obtained by writing the Michigan Tourist Council, Stevens T. Mason Building, Lansing, Michigan 48926.

ONEONTA, ALA., DEMOCRAT: "Conscientious newspapers staffs regularly spend hours and inches telling their readers that the difference between a democracy that succeeds and one that fails is its citizens' involvement. An informed, concerned citizenry is indispensable to a going government, on whatever level. Unknown, uncaring citizens constitute odds that almost guarantee their government's failure."

'Show The Colors'

June 14 is Flag Day. It marks the anniversary of the day in 1777 when the United States flag was adopted.

This year it deserves more than the usual routine gestures of observance out of respect for a symbol of freedom that has been spat upon, burned and dragged in the dirt during the past year with alarming impunity by malcontents and bums of all stripes who respect neither the flag nor the United States.

It is a sad commentary on our times that laws have had to be passed protecting the flag from desecration.

Until comparatively recently, mutilating the flag, in the minds of most of us, was tantamount of treason. But somehow the fog of permissiveness that has settled miasma-like over the land has obscured our vision of the flag and the deathless ideals that support the Stars and Stripes.

***

THE EASIEST way to gain perspective on the meaning of the flag is to visualize for a moment the void that would surround us if there simply were no flag--no focal point on which to center the sense of purpose and principles of a nation.

In common with the U.S. Constitution, The Declaration of Independence and other physical manifestations of freedom under representative government, the flag makes known to all mankind the reason for our existence.

Flag Day is a good opportunity to "show the colors."

Fly on a Real Airliner For Only Four Bucks!

But as luck would have it, your employment requires no plane travel, and you have no relatives in distant cities which would give you an excuse to fly to visit them. Then again you have to face it, that even with a family plan it would be just too hard and expensive on the budget. So whenever you hear and see one of the sky giants fly overhead, you just listen and wish.

But now for a select few that dream of flying on a real airliner can come true, and very reasonable too. As a matter of fact the cost of this special flight-seeing event will be about the same as a hop on some tiny airplane at some nearby small airport.

The dream opportunity will be available on Saturday, June 14, when Associated Newspapers' "This Flying World" column, written by Bill Balogh, will stage its second annual "Air Education Flight," day. Plans have been completed so readers of This Flying World and their families will have the opportunity to fly inexpensively in a real airliner.

With the cooperation of North Central Airlines, one of the finest and smoothest airlines flying today has been placed at our disposal, the Convair 580, prop-jet. With a seating capacity of 48 passengers and crew, the flights will commence at noon Saturday, June 14, of course, all seats will have to be reserved by ticketing in advance. This will be done on a first come, first serve, basis.

The cost per passenger will be...hold onto your seats...only $4 per seat. Sounds like a ridiculous fee for a flight in a real airliner, but it's true. For four dollars each, you and members of your family will be able to fly over your home area and see Wayne, Belleville, Garden City, Inkster, Westland and Detroit from the air from a real airliner.

Every effort is being made to make this a gala "Air Education Flight" day for Flying World readers. The captain of the airliner will point out special areas over the airplane's public address system. Another bit of fun will be that all women on board each flight, after the airliner takes off, will become honorary stewardesses and the men honorary flight captains. Each will receive souvenir wings to keep as memento of the flight.

The stewardesses on board will pass out the wings and demonstrate the excellent service on airliners today. Of course the men will note why North Central Airlines is reputed to have some of the prettiest stewardesses in flight today. All these gals are capable of taking care of any task from taking care of a new born infant to a dealing out a mean Karate chop. Mashers, beware. A good many of these gals live in Wayne, Belleville and Westland.

Many people missed out on the first Flying World "Air Education Flight"—last year because of the tremendous response of people wanting to take the flight and some just waited too long. This year tickets will go on sale in advance at two locations, and when picking up your tickets you can also reserve which flight time you and your party wish.

Those who plan to join us on this flight should follow these instructions: Determine how many tickets you will need, and they can be purchased at the following two locations only.

Main Office: Associated Newspapers, 35612 Michigan Ave., Wayne. Open 9 a.m. till 5 p.m. every day except Sat. or Sun. Or at: North Central Airlines Ticket Counter, North Terminal, Metro Airport. Open every day, all day.

Tickets will go on sale at both locations Thursday, June 5, through June 13. There can be no phone orders.

As many flights as necessary will be flown, the first flight will take off at 12 noon and every 45 minutes after that till dark. So make your plans now to take your family, girl friend or group to join the flying world on Saturday, June 15, in a real Convair 580 prop-jet airliner.

Push U.S. Products at Paris Show

U. S. officials are hoping to reap large benefits from the 1969 Paris Air Show which gets underway late next week.

By refining the format of exhibits and using a more sophisticated approach toward the promotion of American exhibitors, some officials expect a 100 percent increase in sales which can be directly traced to the show.

U. S. specialists, working with various commercial attaches of the State Department, will make more than a thousand "hard sell" calls on potential customers of U. S.-built aerospace products.

Thirty-five American aircraft are expected to be on exhibit at the show.

82nd Airborne Sets Records

1,500 members of the 82nd Airborne Division recently set new records in logistics when they were flown, in a record 31-hour airlift, from North Carolina to Seoul, Korea, and then air-dropped to an objective area with stops en route only for refueling.

The airborne troops were flown to the area near the ROK capital city, in Lockheed C-141 Starlifters.

FLYING WORLD FLIGHT — This was a typical scene on one of last year's Air Education Flights. Stewardesses are passing souvenir wings proclaiming the passengers honorary pilots and stewardesses. This will be repeated on all flights again this year immediately after the airliner is aloft.

Legendary Plane May Be Displayed

"The plane that built the airlines," Douglas' almost legendary DC-3, may be headed back into business.

A DC-3 modified with Rolls-Royce Mk Dart 510 turboprop engines was test flown for the first time last week.

The airplane is expected to join other American aircraft on exhibit at the Paris Air Show.

Test pilot Herman A. Salmon reported the jet powered DC-3 as "handling well" and that performance predictions were apparently accurate.

Because there is an excess of power, the "new" DC-3 is expected to have better high altitude, "hot day" performance. "Jet-3" is expected to cruise at 215 mph.

Bell Delivers

Bell Helicopter Company recently delivered its 10,000th helicopter. The helicopter production milestone by one company was reached after nearly a quarter century of rotary wing manufacturing.

Wayne Housing Increases

Authorizations for new dwelling units in Wayne County during 1968 showed a small increase of 2.3 percent over 1967, according to the 17th Annual Residential Construction report issued by the Planning Division of Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG).
As pointed out in the report, the 2.3 percent increase is somewhat misleading as only Detroit registered a gain of 26.5 percent, while the remainder of the county decreased by 2.6 percent.

Last year a total of 10,375 permits were issued compared to 10,145 permits in 1967.

Multiplies accounted for the substantial part of the accumulative total with 6,003 or 57.9 percent—up from 46.7 percent in 1967 which had a total of 4,742.

Detroit was by far the leader with 1,823 units, followed by Westland with 1,221, Taylor with 691, Riverview with 424, and Northville Township with 293.

The leader in single family units was Livonia with 688, followed by Taylor with 579, Westland with 393, Romulus with 325, Detroit with 296, and Woodhaven with 270.

Cotton farmers in 1968 produced 10.9 million bales valued at $2.08 billion.
